

ing the final transfer of the corpus of any trust fund, or of any part thereof. Such commission shall be the remuneration for the time and responsibility of the Administrator-General in the general administration of the estate or trust and the estate or trust shall not be subject to any other charge in respect thereof.

(2) Any expenses in respect of any other matters, including travelling expenses relating to any estate or trust, may be charged against the estate or trust, in the same way, and to the same extent, that such expenses might be charged under similar circumstances by any administrator, executor, trustee, or guardian, other than the Administrator-General.

Miscellaneous Provisions

All remuneration other than salary to be paid into the Consolidated Fund.
42/1969
3rd Sch.

49. All commissions, fees and remuneration other than salary, payable to, or receivable by, the Administrator-General, under or in pursuance of the provisions of this Act or under or in pursuance of the provisions of any enactment amending or substituted therefor shall, as the same are received by him, be paid into the Treasury and shall form part of the Consolidated Fund.

Remuneration as receiver or co-trustee, co-guardian, or co-committee.

50. When the Administrator-General is appointed by the Supreme Court receiver of any estate, he shall receive the same remuneration that any other person would have been entitled to, if appointed receiver under similar circumstances; and when he is a co-trustee, co-guardian, or co-committee, he shall be entitled to deduct the same fees as if he were the sole trustee, guardian, or committee.

Government to provide office, clerks and expenses of performing duties of office.

51. The Government shall provide the Administrator-General with a suitable office, and with such clerks and assistants as may from time to time be necessary; and all expenses of the said office, and all expenses incurred by the Administrator-General in and about the performance of the duties of his office shall be defrayed out of the Consolidated Fund.

52. When, in the performance of the duties of his office, the Administrator-General has incurred any expense, or made himself liable to any claim or demand, and there is no fund out of which he may or can lawfully recoup or reimburse himself in respect of the same, then, on any Judge of the Supreme Court certifying that such expense was properly and reasonably incurred, or that such liability was properly and reasonably undertaken as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Minister to order that such expense shall be reimbursed out of, or such liability be assumed by, the Consolidated Fund and assets of the Island. The provisions of this section shall apply to the Deputy Administrator-General in the same manner as they apply to the Administrator-General.

Reimbursement of expenses.

53.—(1) The assets of any person dying in this Island or abroad, which shall be in or pass into the possession of the Government of this Island, and for which provision is not otherwise made, shall be delivered to the Administrator-General, unless within six weeks of the same coming into possession of the Government, or the death of the deceased person, whichever shall last happen, probate of the will of such deceased person, or Letters of Administration on the estate and effects of such deceased person be produced to the Minister.

Administration of assets of deceased in the hands of the Government.

(2) If the said assets do not exceed five thousand dollars, the Administrator-General shall divide the same, after deducting his commission and expenses, to and amongst any person or persons who shall appear to him to be entitled to the effects of such deceased person.

30/1991
S. 4 (a).

(3) If such assets exceed five thousand dollars, but do not exceed fifteen thousand dollars, the Administrator-

30/1991
S. 4(b).